In a bid to curb noise pollution and promote a peaceful environment, the local police department, in collaboration with the MIT Students, has taken decisive action against noise-making bikes and established a silence zone at Kranti Chowk.

Community Response:

- Positive feedback from residents and businesses appreciating the reduced noise levels
- Increased sense of community pride and ownership in maintaining the silence zone

Conclusion:

The joint effort by the police and MIT Students has successfully addressed the issue of noise pollution and created a peaceful environment at Kranti Chowk. We will continue to monitor and maintain the silence zone to ensure its effectiveness.
